High in the mountains under skies of blue,
this may be your Camelot.

Under summer flowers or winter powder,
Beaver Creek has the cozy, unhurried feel of an Alpine village.

Sun-bathed patios, rustic cabins in aspen groves, romance in the mountain air.

Nestled around an intimate square,
it is a world away from the world.

And the accommodations are never more than a stroll apart,
or at most a moment or two by village shuttle.

If you want a memory that will last forever,
this is a match made in heaven.

Happiness is in the details.

Allie’s Cabin

A fairy tale log cabin high among the summer aspen groves. A spacious deck with the village spread below you and the Rocky Mountain skyline far across the valley. What better place for your ceremony or cocktail reception? In winter, you can warm yourself at a baronial stone fireplace after an open-air sleigh ride.

Allie Townsend, “First Lady” of Beaver Creek, was the wife of one of the first settlers, George Townsend. The cabin named after her is extensively decorated with original Americana and eclectic touches. Floor-to-ceiling windows bring the mountains to the celebration.

Located on the Mountain. Capacity 100 or 75 with dancing.

For availability and reservations, please call (970) 754 5762.

The lawn arranged for a ceremony (left).
Evening celebrations on the tented deck (below top).
The dining area will be set up to fit your party (below bottom).

Beano’s Cabin

Beano’s is a feast for the senses. With an open lawn and wraparound deck at the foot of towering Grouse Mountain, it is a ballroom under the stars. Inside, vaulted ceilings, antler chandeliers and the warming glow of a stone hearth sharpen the appetite for a gourmet organic menu and a breathtaking wine list.

This legendary restaurant, nestled in a mountain meadow at the base of Larkspur Bowl, was once a lettuce patch. Frank Bienkowski, “Beano”, was an original settler and longtime farmer. Today, the hospitality is award-winning (DiRona and Wine Spectator Award of Excellence), and the setting perfect for glittering memories.

Located on the Mountain. Capacity 150 or 100 with dancing. A tented deck is available in the summer months.

For availability and reservations, please call (970) 754 5762.

The Grand Staircase (below bottom).

SaddleRidge

Step inside and the past embraces you. SaddleRidge is home to the largest collection of American artifacts outside a museum and a blend of the rustic and the grand.

The cuisine is modern Western-American, served in three different dining rooms, all available for private functions. Upstairs you can relax in the frontier atmosphere of our Saloon Bar fitted with railroad chandeliers. The manicured lawn is a carpet, and the cocktail hour the perfect moment to toast a shared future.

Located in Beaver Creek. Clubhouse capacity 140 or 120 with dancing. Library capacity 32 for dining and Larkspur Room capacity 40 for dining.

For availability and reservations, please call (970) 754 5762.

The grandeur of the mountains is captured at Zach's (left).
Two views of the main level (below).

Zach's Cabin

Soaring vaulted ceilings, sturdy lodge poles, and a wooden deck surrounded by jutting rock and evergreens. Twig chandeliers and a central stone fireplace. Uninterrupted views of the magnificent Gore Range.

Zach's, named after a fiery frontier lawman, is famous today for Creative American cuisine infused with Pacific Rim flair and a cellar full of excellent vintages. It is a recipient of the Wine Spectator "Best Of" Award of Excellence.

The restaurant is available from December to March.

Located on the Mountain in Bachelor Gulch. Winter capacity 110 on the main level with dancing on the lower level; 150 using both levels.

For availability and reservations, please call (970) 754 5762.

Sunset on Fazio Golf Course (left).

and the dining room (below bottom).

Red Sky Ranch

Overlooking one of America’s finest golf courses and Vail Valley, Red Sky Ranch has a sophisticated country club atmosphere. Stunning views of Castle Peak and blazing sunsets complement a menu of fresh, seasonal dishes. There is a large patio and a covered terrace which are ideal for a wedding party. Best suited to small and medium-sized groups, Red Sky Ranch opens its doors during the summer months.

Located in Vail Valley. Summer capacity 120 on the covered terrace and dancing on a tented patio.

For availability and reservations, please call (970) 754 5762.

The Chapel in the trees (left).

Before the vows, and after (below).

Beaver Creek Chapel

The Chapel is set beside the Creek by a grove of balsam poplar trees. It stands alone, a place of both grandeur and intimacy – it has been given many architecture awards. People of all beliefs worship here, and it has been the backdrop for many recitals and concerts by renowned musicians. An idyllic setting for two people to start a new life together, with a mountain of choices for the reception. The venues are listed in this book.

Located at the base of the Mountain. Capacity 200. Available for summer and winter wedding ceremonies.

To check Chapel availability, directly contact a resident clergy listed below.
Baptist (970) 926 1759 | Catholic (970) 926 2821 | Episcopal (970) 476 0618 | Jewish (970) 477 2992 | Lutheran (970) 476 6610 | Presbyterian (970) 477 0383

Broken Arrow

A toasty crackling firepit is the perfect focal point for any gathering. And from a large outdoor patio, guests can take in wonderful mountain views.

Broken Arrow serves up Colorado cuisine at its most eclectic. Comfortable, casual, and a little more intimate, it is ideal for smaller parties.

Located at the base of Arrowhead, serving breakfast, lunch and multi-course dinners for private events. With an indoor/outdoor bar, it has the exclusive feel of a mountain lodge.

Located at the base of the Mountain. Capacity 75 or 50 with dancing. The patio can be tented for larger events.

For availability and reservations, please call (970) 754 5762.

The Rendezvous Club

The Rendezvous Club offers the feel of a private country club and is available for private events. Situated on the Beaver Creek Golf Course, it offers wonderful views of lush green links and glorious mountain scenery.

A blend of leather, marble, chenille and wood, the restaurant's earth tones mirror the mountain grandeur. The spacious stone patio is ideal for socializing at cocktail hour.

Located on the Beaver Creek Golf Course. Capacity 55.

For availability and reservations, please call (970) 754 5762.

Spruce Saddle Lodge

At 10,200 feet, Spruce Saddle is the crossroads of Beaver Creek Mountain. From its wide open lawn it has spectacular views of the Gore Range clear across the Eagle River Valley. A large open dining room features a soaring vaulted ceiling and can easily accommodate from 200 to 600 guests, depending on the season.

Only accessible by chairlift in winter, it is a one-of-a-kind venue for a true on-mountain experience. In the summer it can be accessed by chairlift or shuttle and offers superb outdoor event amenities.

Located on the Mountain. Capacity 600 using both levels, 300 on the lower level with dancing. 200 using East and West mezzanines.

For availability and reservations, please call (970) 754 5762.

Toscanini

Toscanini is located in the very heart of Beaver Creek Village beside the ice rink and Vilar Center, in the plaza square.

This very stylish, contemporary restaurant is a delicious mix of old and new. Named after the world-famous maestro, and steeped in old-world preparation and service, it brings fresh new color to Italian regional cuisine.

The outstanding wine cellar has been honored with The Wine Spectator Award of Excellence.

Located in Beaver Creek Village. Capacity 100.

For availability and reservations, please call (970) 754 5762.

Summer Activities

Golf. Sculpted by the great Rocky Mountains, three championship golf courses are available during your stay. The conveniently located Beaver Creek Golf Course was designed by Robert Trent Jones, Jr. and has been ranked among Golf Digest's "Top 75 Golf Resorts in North America". Just down the road, Red Sky Golf Club encompasses 700 acres of classic western landscape and hosts two world-class courses designed by Tom Fazio and Greg Norman. Tee times can be arranged.

Scenic Chairlift Rides. The views on the mountaintop are fabulous and we encourage everyone to ride the chairlift while visiting the Vail Valley. Group lift ticket rates are available and vary depending upon the size of the group.

Nature Hikes. The Beaver Creek Hiking Center offers guided hiking on Beaver Creek Mountain. Guides are educated in areas of Rocky Mountain flora, fauna and local history. Half day and full day public hikes are available by reservation and private hikes can be customized for your group. Trail maps are available for self-guided hiking on Beaver Creek.

Mountain Biking. Take the Centennial Express Chairlift to the top of Beaver Creek Mountain and enjoy the spectacular and extensive network of mountain bike trails. A wide variety of guided tours and instruction is available, or just cruise the mountain on your own.

Fly Fishing. Experience the great outdoors and try a hand at fishing in Colorado's rivers and lakes. Professional guides can help improve technique or teach the basic skills of fishing to your group. Comprehensive fly fishing schools are offered as well as guided wade and float trips.

Horseback Riding. Located just above the base of Beaver Creek Mountain, our stables offer trail rides into the wilderness. Groups may depart in the morning or the afternoon. Guided fishing trips on horseback are also available and can include lunch.

Beaver Creek Rodeo. Enjoy classic rodeo events as well as a petting zoo and pony rides. The Beaver Creek Rodeo is every Thursday evening throughout the summer. Food and beverages are available onsite.

Winter Activities

Ski & Snowboard School. Beaver Creek offers world-renowned Ski and Snowboard School programs with more than 1,300 instructors from around the world. The Beaver Creek Ski & Snowboard School is dedicated to giving you the most exciting variety of instruction options anywhere. Programs specialize in alpine, snowboard, children's, adaptive, and private groups.

First Tracks. Be the first to make tracks on one of our legendary powder days or on our many pristine groomers. Your group will have special early-morning access to the mountain an hour before the lifts open to the general public. First Tracks packages include access to three chairlifts as well as a private breakfast at one of our on-mountain venues.

Equipment Rentals. Equipment rentals are available at a variety of locations depending on where your group is staying. Rentals of alpine skis, snowboards, cross-country skis, snowshoes, kid's rental and helmets can be arranged. Our knowledgeable staff will fit your guests with the latest equipment and we'll even store it overnight for free.

Complimentary Mountain Tours. Take advantage of our complimentary mountain tours for intermediate and advanced skiers and snowboarders. Our Guest Service staff will meet your group at your lodging property and take them on a personal tour of Beaver Creek Mountain. The tour runs from 10:00am to Noon. The tour includes an in-depth look of Beaver Creek, Bachelor Gulch and Arrowhead. It's a great way to spend the first day and learn about the mountain, the resort, and the history of the area.

Nordic Sports. Enjoy cross-country and telemark skiing and snowshoeing in the picturesque terrain of the Rockies. McCoy Park, accessed by the Strawberry Park Express Lift, offers a world class 32-kilometer track system complete with skating lanes, snowshoe trails and amazing mountaintop views. Choose from a variety of half-day and full-day lessons and tours, or simply tour on your own. The Beaver Creek Nordic Center offers instruction, equipment rental and retail items. Special Nordic programs can be customized to meet your group's needs.

Group Ski Races. Rent your own private race course. Our dual NASTAR race course is on a gently rolling blue run and suitable for advanced beginners through advanced racers. Gold, silver or bronze medals are awarded based on time, age, and gender. Custom races on other runs are also available.

Fireworks. Looking to leave your guests with a lasting impression? What better way than a private fireworks display to conclude an amazing evening on Beaver Creek Mountain. Fireworks can be coordinated with your private dinner at Allie's Cabin, Beano's Cabin and SaddleRidge, from 5 to 20 minutes long.

Advance Lift Tickets. We will outline our lift ticket program and ensure you receive the special group rate (with 20 or more skiers/snowboarders). We can assist in determining your needs, compile the order and work with you to have them delivered to the hotel or registration area.
