OFFICIAL WINTER VACATION GUIDE 2017/18

P. Eric Berger

MAGNETIC.

Feeling
the pull.

Anyone who has ever gazed out from atop our peaks over the endless wild, has felt it. The power of the landscape, the towering mountains, the crisp air and glinting snow cast the trivial aside and draw your focus to what's truly important. It's a force of nature: something real. It manifests itself in our undeniable reputation, our legendary terrain, our reliably deep snow and our world record-breaking gondola. The endless possibilities of this place have created its own laws of attraction that forge lasting connections and pull people back time and again. We're all drawn here for different reasons. Some are attracted to a mountain town with an undisputed atmosphere. Others are pulled in by the pedestrian village with ski-in/ski-out lodging.

Many seek the outdoor adventures that range from just-enough to over-the-top. Then there's the world-famous après, five star dining, spas, shopping, or nightlife that are hard for anyone to resist. And at the center of it all, the two largest, consistently #1 ranked, side-by-side ski mountains in North America create a place with limitless possibilities that are truly magnetic. The only question is: What draws you?

Watch the Magnetic movie, a ski film captured entirely on Whistler Blackcomb.

HOW WE MEASURE UP

It's not just our mile-high vertical that sets Whistler Blackcomb apart from the rest. You want reliable snow year over year, and consistent snowfall throughout the season, to be assured of an experience that truly delivers the goods. As North America's largest resort, our side by side mountains hold more skiable terrain, nightly groomed runs and lifts, including the world-record breaking PEAK 2 PEAK Gondola, than anywhere on the continent. Your white carpet awaits.

Ski or stroll to Whistler's slopeside village.

Nestled at the base of Whistler and Blackcomb mountains, Whistler Village is a lively mix of off-hill action and amenities, folded into a pedestrian-only community hub. Teeming with shops, restaurants, accommodations and day-to-day essentials, the Village anchors a year-round mountain culture that has everything to meet the needs of those who gather here—without the need for a car. It's a one-of-a-kind confluence of two massive mountains, unique to North America, where plazas meet powder, where quaint mountain town meets cultural melting pot.

APRÈS AND NIGHTLIFE

There's a Neverland feel about Whistler—no one who comes here wants to grow up, and that's best experienced after hours. The nightlife gets top honours, and the people behind Whistler Blackcomb's slopeside bars have turned après into an art form. Virtually every ski and snowboard publication on the planet agrees, with magazines like FREESKIER and Transworld giving top marks to Whistler's nightlife.

→ Après at every mountain base The famous Garibaldi Lift Co (GLC to the locals) is après magic at the base of the Whistler Village Gondola, while Merlin's rocks the Blackcomb base and Dusty's Bar & BBQ offers a local, chilled-out crowd in Creekside.

DINING

Foodies unite! Whistler's culinary scene has evolved into one that rivals cities ten times the size. With more than 170 establishments dishing up delight, Whistler's range is as big as your appetite.

- Quick, tasty and Canadian Options abound for great local and fresh versions of "fast food." Try a hormone and antibiotic-free burger from Garbo's Grill or poutine (a Canadian favourite made from fries, gravy and cheese curds) from Zog's Dogs.
- Permission to indulge. Take advantage of Whistler's proximity to the coast and discover why the fresh sushi from Sushi Village has a cult following. Araxi Restaurant has been named Whistler's best restaurant for over a decade, while the Bearfoot Bistro boasts an internationally acclaimed wine cellar. Locals love the Rimrock Café for its seafood and game menu.

So when you're packing for your Whistler Blackcomb escape, don't forget to bring your appetite.

TOP GEAR IN STORE

Stroll through the Village and it's clear that this isn't frontier-land. From high fashion to high performance gear, Whistler is chock-full of trend-makers, and the Village stores are stocked with a huge selection.

- More than 200 retail shops including brands such as Quiksilver, lululemon athletica, The North Face, Patagonia, Roots, Salomon and Lush Cosmetics sit side-by-side with local artisans and unique gift shops.
- High performance specialists: Equipment retailers like CAN-SKI & Showcase Snowboards are staffed with some of the most knowledgeable folks in the snow business. And there's no better place to get boots custom-fitted than a place where the staff live, eat and breathe "high-performance."

ATTRACTIONS IN WHISTLER

So much to do, so many choices. Explore native history at the Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre. Take in Hollywood's latest at the Village 8 Cinema. Or soak up all the free activities at Whistler Olympic Plaza, including entertainment, concerts and ice skating.
